MEMORANDUM FOR : The Director of Central Intelligence

VIA : The Deputy Director for Plans

SUBJECT : Bibliography on Soviet Intelligence and Security Services Published by Senate
Subcommittee.

1. This memorandum is for information.
2. The attached copy of a bibliography on Soviet intelligence and security services, 1964-1970, was published by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on 29 April 1972. The bibliography was compiled by contract employees of our project TPMURILLO, which was conceived and originally implemented in 1964 under your guidance. The project provides authority and funds for the study of selected overt publications, in order to identify data on the RIS, its organization, personnel, and operations. The data are systematically introduced into the RIS machine records system. The bibliography became a possibility when the Soviets shifted from silence regarding their intelligence activities to guarded revelations.
3. At our request the bibliography was brought to the attention of the Subcommittee by _____ of OLC, who encouraged publication and stayed abreast of its progress.
4. The Subcommittee has stated that it will publish supplements, and we are preparing the update through 1971 for release in the beginning of 1973.
5. The work is unique. It affords Western scholars, particularly those in English speaking countries, an opportunity to grapple for the
